

Pastoral Care Chairperson Responsibilities

Goal: The goal of this ministry is to lovingly recognize pastors and their wives so that a healthy relationship will be maintained between the church and its pastors

1. He should recognize before the church, birthdays of the pastors and their wives (possibly with a card in a financial gift from the church)
2. He should recognize their anniversaries
3. He should recognize Pastor Appreciation Month
4. He should recognize them at Christmas with a small gift
5. He should not exclude his local pastor when considering giving or supporting pastors in the mission field – he may need to be involved in missions to ensure this (Take note: A missionary can be in the field for life, but often times a pastor lasts a short time in a local church)
6. He must be a person who sees a need in this ministry and serves with joy
7. He is to express freely the need of the people to love their pastors in return for the love the pastors have for the church
8. You should regularly remind the congregation of such important texts as: Hebrews 13:7,17; 1 Thess 5:12,13
9. More than just a loving relationship between shepherd and flock, this ministry must promote a holy relationship between Pastor and church: extinguishing sin, gossip and slander of any kind (1 Tim 5:17-19)
